Report on

World Environment Day (5th June 2022)

The Eco Club Dhemaji College Unit observe the World environment day 2022 with a day long programme. The celebration started with a plantation programme inaugurated by Dr. Dipak kr. Neog , Principal Dhemaji College by planting a sapling of Arjun tree. A total of 20 indigenous sapling of Krishnasura, koros, Arjun, Nahor, Mango, Modhuri and Hilikha were planted in the College Campus.

The second programme of World Environment day was an awareness meeting amoung the students. Dr. Dipak kr. Neog , Dr. Annajyoti Gogoi delivered their lecture as resource person. They discussed about the various environmental issues and problem in present world amoung the students. They also highlighted and motivated the students for a clean and green environment for our better future.

The celebration ended by an open quiz amoung the students. Prof. Diganta Hazarika Quiz master hosted open quiz amoung the students. All the students participated in the quiz competition.

Madhu Shastry
(Coordinator)