

“RIGHT GUIDANCE AT THE RIGHT TIME”
A CAREER COUNSELLING PROGRAMME ON CIVIL SERVICE
DATE: 9TH FEBRUARY, 2022

Indian Civil Service is one of the exalted services in India. In spite of talent, due to the lack of proper guidance and support, very few students from north eastern India including Assam had cracked this examination. Keeping this view in mind, the IQAC & Career Guidance Cell, Dhemaji College organized counselling cum interactive programme on career in Indian civil services in association with Sankardev IAS Academy, Guwahati, Assam. Mr. Swapnanil Baruah, Retd. IAS and former Deputy Commissioner of Dhemaji District grace the programme as resource person.

The undergraduate students of Dhemaji College along with the faculty members attended the programme. Mr. Baruah delivered a talk on career in civil services and how to prepare for this high level examination. He also interacted with the students and addressed the queries of the students regarding preparation and details of Indian civil services examination. Dr. Dipak Kr. Neog, Principal of Dhemaji College chaired the programme and delivered the inaugural lecture.
