Meaning

L Rs aren't dependent on Nation's Law or Customs of any particular Culture or Govt. – Universal - Fundamental -Inalienable – Can not be repealed/revoked by human laws – No Govt. can deny – Inherent -

The modern idea of N R grew out of the ancient and medieval doctrines of natural law – (Human beings are natural, organization of Society)

Contractualists – Hobbes – Locke – Rousseau & Natural Rights

Different Kinds of Natural Rights
