

Human Rights

Dr. U. Konch

Head

Dept. of Political Science

Dhemaji College

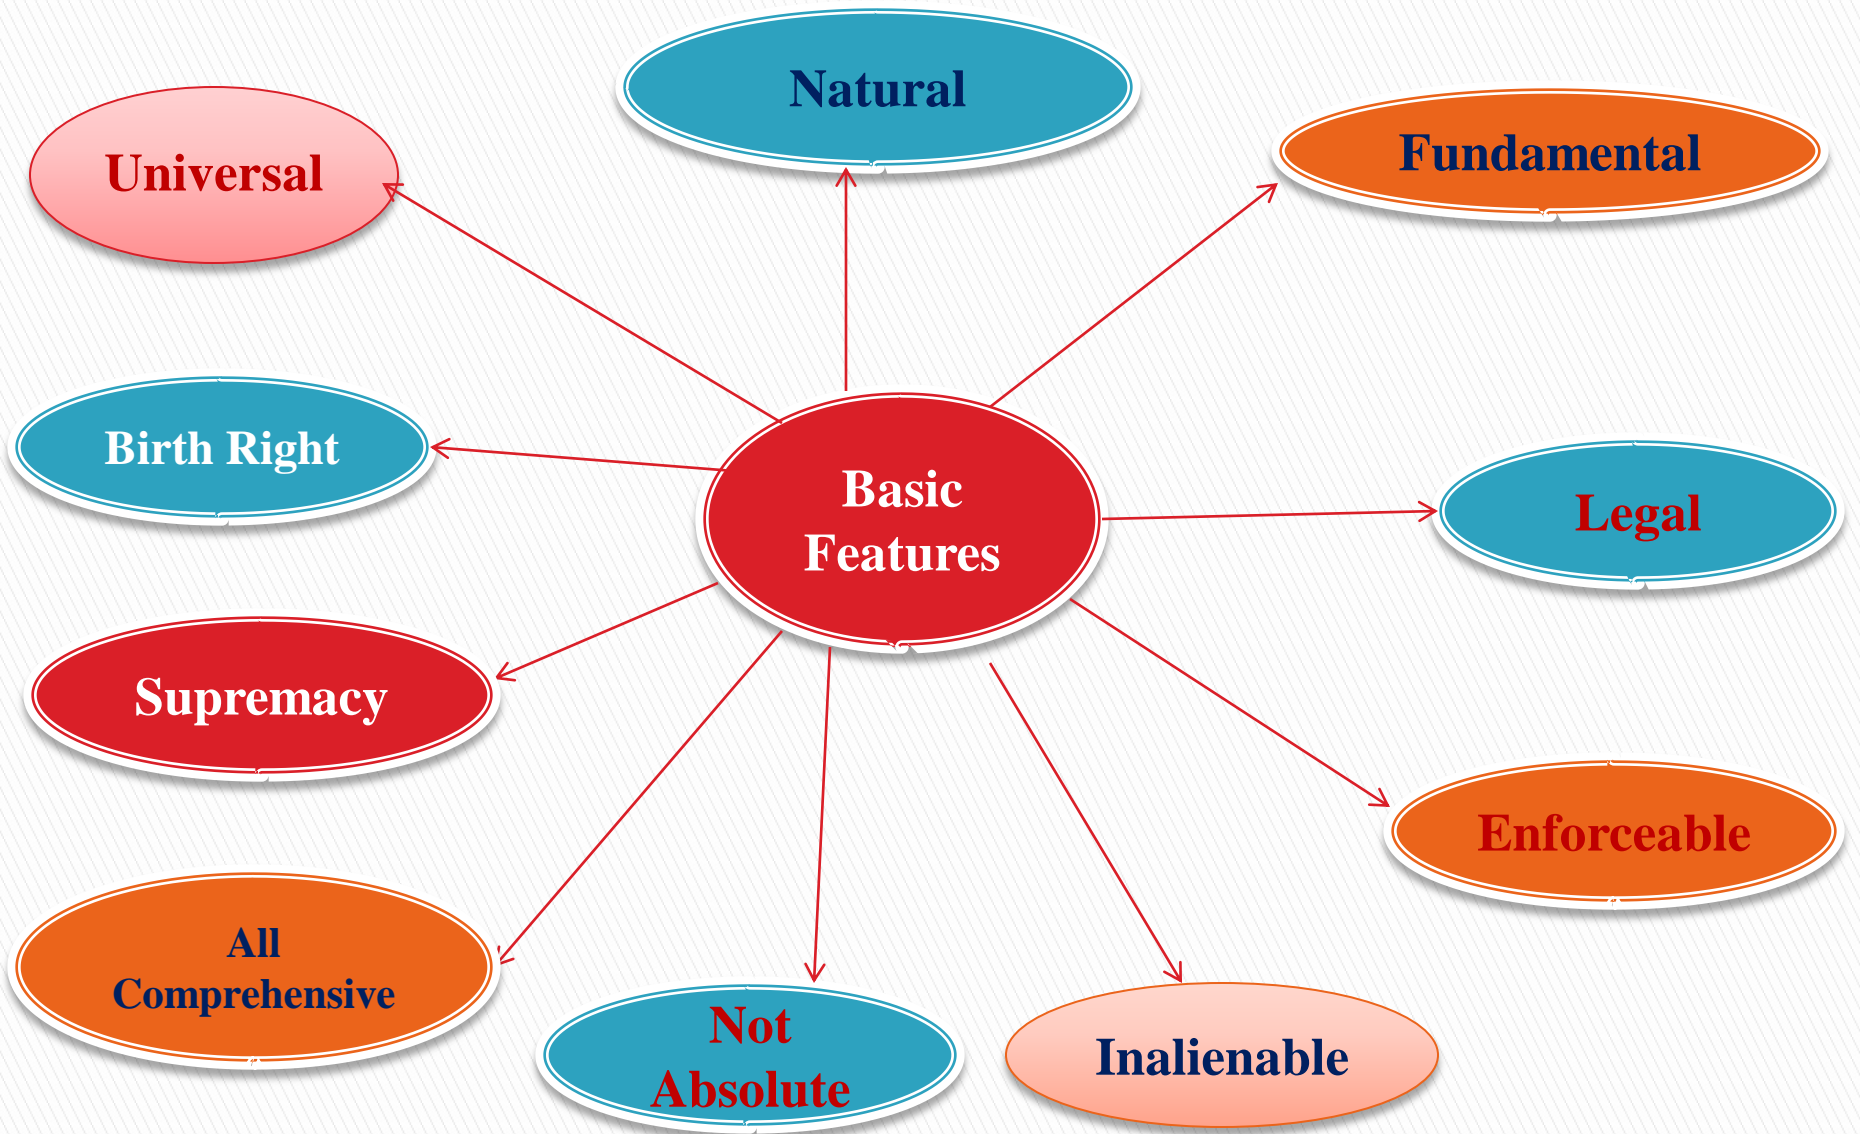

Dhemaji

Meaning & Definitions

Rights, Civil Rights, Fundamental Rights – Human Rights – Natural – Birth – Universal – Fundamental – Inalienable -

- “Human Rights are those conditions of social life without which no man can seek in general, to be himself at his best”.
– Harold J. Laski
- “ Human rights mean the basic freedoms that people should have”.
- Oxford Work Power Dictionary.
- “Human rights are fundamental rights of human beings anywhere on this earth to live and lead a dignified human existence”.
- S. M. Begam & R. Rehman.
- “ Human rights are those rights which are inherent in our nature and without which we can't live as human beings”.
- The U. N. “Human Rights : Questions and Answers” in 1987.

Thank you!

